Our Impact

Advancing Housing Stability Across Maine and New Hampshire.

The housing crisis in Northern New England demands bold, coordinated solutions. In Southern Maine, where 38% of households face housing instability, the United Way of Southern Maine's Housing Crisis Response Fund provides both immediate relief and long-term support. In 2024, the fund helped:

- 625 families move from homelessness to housing
- 533 families maintain stable housing
- 396 older adults remain safely housed through supportive services

The fund focuses on preventing homelessness, meeting urgent needs like food and health services, and protecting vulnerable populations including children, seniors, and survivors of domestic abuse.

In New Hampshire, Granite United Way's KeyConnect NH is launching statewide in 2025 to bridge the gap between housing vouchers and stable placements. The program provides:

- Security deposits and move-in support to eliminate last-mile barriers
- Mediation and emergency assistance to prevent evictions
- Incentives for landlords, including repairs and flexible screening
- Capacity-building for service providers to sustain placements

KeyConnect NH connects property owners, housing authorities, and nonprofits through tools like Padmission, ensuring faster placements, fewer vacancies, and more stable tenancies. Together, these initiatives create a responsive, efficient housing infrastructure—ensuring families across Maine and New Hampshire not only find homes, but keep them. By supporting these efforts, we move closer to a future where housing stability is not a privilege, but a promise for every neighbor, family, and community.
